

PANORAMIC BRACELETS

These three Van Cleef & Arpels bracelets are being made—by hand—in Paris, but they were inspired by the American West. Creative Director Nicolas Bos studied images by Ansel Adams and William Eggleston to create designs that evoke California scenes, from a sunrise (in pink sapphires) to the Sierra Nevada mountains (in tsavorite garnets and emeralds). “Van Cleef has a tradition of working on imaginary worlds,” says Bos. “California is like that for us in Europe: light, color, surfing, the Beach Boys. It’s the last frontier.” Prices upon request; 877-8262-5333; vancleef-arpels.com.
