Great Finds

Our latest buys for the kitchen and grill. BY MELISSA DENCHAK

BBQ Tools That Last

These handsome grill tools by Zwilling J.A. Henckels (the knife pros) are for the serious griller. Each one is styled from a single piece of 18/10 rust- and corrosion-resistant stainless steel and has a handle made from pakka wood (a hardwood-resin blend). They're solid, feel great in the hand, and are dishwasher-safe. Tongs, $59.99; turner and fork, $49.99 each; brookstone.com; 800-846-3000.

New World Olive Oil

A Chilean import, this single-varietal Arbequina extra-virgin olive oil from Las Doscientas is made from hand-picked olives that are cold-pressed immediately after harvest for maximum flavor. We love its fresh, grassy taste, berry notes, and peppery finish. Use it in salads or for drizzling over chicken or salmon. $17.99 for a 500-ml bottle; fosterfinefoods.com; 404-405-6089.

Just Nuts

This chunky Marcona almond butter will make you rethink PB&J. Made from roasted Spanish Marconas and sea salt, it has a deliciously rich, toasted flavor and a mildly sweet finish. Smear it onto sandwiches, stir it into yogurt, drizzle it over ice cream, or pair it with chocolate or cheese. $9.99 for a 9.17-oz. tub; murrayscheese.com; 888-692-4339.

Clever Corn Holders

You love steaming hot corn on the cob—just not when it falls off the corn holders and into your lap. Oxo's new corn holders fix that problem: Each one has a spiral pin that twists into the ear of corn, securing the holder. Nonslip grips ensure that buttery fingers don't slide off, either. $10.99 for eight corn holders with a storage case; oxo.com; 800-545-4411.

Remote Grilling

Forget hovering over the grill—the new iGrill probe thermometer will keep an eye on those steaks for you. By wirelessly communicating with your iPhone, iPad, or iPod touch, the iGrill allows you to track temperature and time while you entertain guests or mix cocktails in the kitchen. It alerts you when your burgers reach medium rare or when there's only a minute left to give your chicken thighs that final coating of glaze. $99.99; igrillinc.com; 888-934-4745.

Lightning-Fast Grill Lighter

Aim the Looftlighter at the charcoal in your grill, and this plug-in fire starter will blow super-heated air that's hot enough to light briquettes in seconds, no lighter fluid required. Hold it there longer, and the coals will be grilling-ready in just five minutes. $79.95; firecraft.com; 800-745-6109.
